The Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences is a national, member-based organization of universities and scholarly associations that promotes the value of research and teaching for the advancement of an inclusive, democratic and prosperous society.

A voice for the HSS community:
Sharing perspectives on humanities and social sciences (HSS) research in the media and with the public

Big Thinking lectures:
Forging critical links between research and policy

Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences:
Convening Canada’s largest academic gathering, 85 years and counting!

Awards to Scholarly Publications Program (ASPP):
Supporting the publication and translation of scholarly books since 1941

Canada Prizes:
Celebrating the best scholarly books in the HSS since 1991

Policy outreach:
Engaging with decision makers and stakeholders on key humanities and social science policy priorities

Annual conference:
Bringing our membership together

91,000 researchers & graduate students across Canada represented
160+ universities, colleges & scholarly associations as members
75 years of service

Grow with us @ideas_idees ideas-idees.ca